This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

FACTORY INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

Harrisburg, Penna., November 30, 1901.

To Hon. Wm. A. Stone, Governor of the Commonwealth:

Sir: In compliance with the Act of the General Assembly, I submit the twelfth annual report of the Department of Factory Inspection for the year ending October 31, 1901. It is gratifying that I am able to report the continuation of the prosperous condition of the employment of labor that existed in 1900. Owing to the sickness of one of the deputies in Allegheny county, there were establishments employing over 75,000 people that were not inspected. That number added to the number of employes reported, would show an increase over last year.

Accidents.

There were 2,334 accidents reported, 223 less than last year. One hundred and three of that number were fatal, 10 less than the year 1900. Three hundred and forty-five were serious, 134 less than the year 1900, and 1,886 were less serious, 79 less than last year. The law enacted by the last General Assembly gives the Department more power to investigate accidents and will, in my judgment, result in more care being taken to guard against accidents, thereby reducing the number of injuries and fatalities.

Fire Escapes.

Experience has demonstrated beyond a doubt that for buildings four or more stories high, the outside, open, iron fire escape is not always a safe means of escape in case of fire. The late disastrous fire on Market street, Philadelphia, where the building was properly equipped with outside, open, iron fire escapes, proved that this means of escape in case of such a fire was of no account, from the fact that a number of people were burned to death in attempting to descend the escapes. The General Assembly should enact a law providing for better means of egress in case of fire for high buildings. The tower escape, recommended to the Legislature in 1897, by William C. Haddock, now director of public works, in Philadelphia, is the safest and most complete means of egress yet presented to the public.

Digitized by Google

In the annual report of 1900 I recommended a number of changes and additions to the laws governing factory inspection. Most of them were enacted into law and are now in operation. The additional work imposed upon the department was wise and just, but there was a mistake made in not giving the department the amount of help asked for, and, with the additional work that these new laws imposed upon the Department, there is not now sufficient force to give the required care and attention for the proper enforcement of the laws.

For the two years ending May 31, 1901, there were appropriated $20,000 for the payment of the traveling expenses, hotel bills, postage, expressage, etc., of the twenty deputies and Inspector. There was an unexpended balance of $2,490.57 of the amount returned to the State Treasurer.

Very truly yours,
JAMES CAMPBELL,
Factory Inspector.

DECISION OF JUDGE BIDDLE, OF PHILADELPHIA, IN RE COMMONWEALTH VS. ROBERT BEATTY AND JOHN R. BEATTY.

Commonwealth vs. Robert Beatty and John R. Beatty. } The following decision in reference to the Factory Law of 1897 will explain itself:

DEMURRER TO INDICTMENT.

The indictment in this case charges the defendants with the violation of the provisions of the act of Assembly of April 29th, 1897. The pertinent sections of this act which are charged to be violated are comprised in the first and fourteenth sections, to-wit:

Section 1. That no minor, male or female, or adult woman, shall be employed at labor or detained in any manufacturing establishment, mercantile industry, laundry, work shop, renovating works or printing office, for any longer period than twelve hours in any day, nor for a longer period than sixty hours in any week.

Section 14. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act, or who suffers any child or female to be employed in violation of its provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.

To this the defendants have demurred, contending, inter alia, that the act, in so far as it applies to adult women, is contrary to the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania, because it is an unjust interference with her right of acquiring and possessing property and pursuing her own happiness; that it is also contrary to the Constitution of the United States, because it is an attempt to deprive her of liberty and property without due process of law.

The title of the act of April 29th, 1897, is "An act to regulate the employment and provide for the health and safety of men, women and children in manufacturing establishments, mercantile industries, laundries and renovating works and printing offices, and to provide for the appointment of inspectors, office clerks and others to enforce the same."

So that the object of the enactment as expressed by the Legislature is "to provide for the health and safety of men, women and children" in certain kinds of labor. This exercise of power, if it exists at all, must be deprived from the police power of the State, and the real question here is whether it has been properly exercised.

In the great manufacturing State of Massachusetts, see Commonwealth vs. Hamilton Mfg. Co., 120 Mass. 383, in considering an almost identical statute, Mr. Justice Lore says:

"It does not forbid any person, firm or corporation, from employing as many persons or as much labor as such person, firm or corporation may desire, nor does it forbid any person to work as many hours a day or week as he chooses. It merely provides that in an employment which the Legislature has evidently deemed to some extent dangerous to health, no person shall be engaged more than ten hours a day or sixty hours a week.

"There can be no doubt that such legislation may be maintained, either as a health or police regulation, if it were necessary to resort to either of those sources for power. This principle has been so frequently recognized in this Commonwealth that reference to the decisions is unnecessary."

Mr. Justice Brown in the Supreme Court of the United States says:

Digitized by Google

"This right of contract, however, is itself subject to certain limitations which the State may lawfully impose in the exercise of its police powers. While this power is inherent in all governments, it has doubtless been greatly extended in its application during the past century owing to an enormous increase in the number of occupations which are dangerous, or so far detrimental to, the health of employes as to demand special precautions for their well-being and protection or the safety of adjacent property, while this court has held, notably in the case of Davidson vs. New Orleans, 96 U. S. 97 (24, 616) and Yick Wo vs. Hopkins, 116 U. S. 356 (30:230) that while the police power cannot be put forward as an excuse for oppressive and unjust legislation, it may be lawfully resorted to for the purpose of preserving the public health, safety or morals, or the abatement of public nuisances, and a large discretion is necessarily vested in the Legislature to determine not only what the interests of the public require, but what measures are necessary for the protection of such interests." Lawler vs. Steele, 152 U. S. 133-136. (38:385:388).

In Pennsylvania the existence of the police power is recognized in numerous instances in our courts as a necessary function of government. Judge Rice, in Comm. vs. Brown, 8 Superior Ct. Rep. 351, says: "In the exercise of the police power of the State, it may enact laws in the interest of public morals, and to protect the lives, health and safety of persons following specific callings, and thus indirectly interfere with freedom of contract." And our Constitution specially provides, Art. XVI, Sec. 3, that "The exercise of police power of the State shall never be abridged or so construed as to permit corporations to conduct their business in such manner as to infringe the equal right of individuals of the general well-being of the State."

Surely an act which prevents the mothers of our race from being tempted to endanger their lives and health by exhaustive employment, can be condemned by none save those who expect to profit by it. The complaint of violated constitutional rights, it will be observed, does not come from those who are employed, but from those who employ them.

The Legislature has spoken in no uncertain words on this subject, and our Supreme Court has declared that "a statute will be declared unconstitutional by the court only when it violates the Constitution clearly, palpably, plainly and in such manner as to leave no doubt for hesitation in our minds." Sharpless vs. Phila., 21, Pa. 147.

We think that this act is clearly within the police power of the State, and the exercise of it in this case justified by the interests of the individual and the community.

Other point of demurrer in addition to those we have discussed were also very ably argued before us, but we are unable to perceive their application to the case before us.

The demurrer, therefore, to this bill of indictment is overruled.

DECISION OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

IN CASE OF

COMMONWEALTH vs. R. AND J. R. BEATTY,

FILED JULY 26, 1900.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs. Robert Beatty and John R. Beatty.	No. 234 October Term, 1899. Appeal from the court of quarter sessions of Philadelphia county. Judgment affirmed.

Filed July 26, 1900. Orlady, J.

An indictment against these defendants under the act of April 29, 1897, P. L. 30, was returned a true bill by the grand jury. A demurrer was filed thereto which after argument, was overruled, a judgment was entered for the Commonwealth, and the defendants were sentenced. On argument in this court the specifications of error are urged under two propositions: 1. The indictment does not charge a crime known to the laws of the State. 2. The act on which the indictment is based is in contravention of the constitution of the State and of the United States.

The title of the act is as follows: "To regulate the employment and provide for the health and safety of men, women and children, in manufacturing establishments, mercantile industries, laundries, renovating works or printing offices, and to provide for the appointment of inspectors, office clerks and others to enforce the same."

The first and fourteenth sections of the act are the ones alleged to have been violated, and the arguments of counsel have been confined to the consideration of those, viz: "Section 1. That no minor, male or female, or adult woman shall be employed at labor or detained in any manufacturing establishment, mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works or printing office for a longer period than twelve hours in one day, nor for a longer period than sixty hours in any week." "Section 14. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act, or who suffers or permits any child or female to be employed in violation of its provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars."

Theretofore the offense charged was not indictable; and it is set out in the indictment in the exact words of the act of Assembly which created it. The defendants could not have been misled as to the nature of the offense they were called upon to answer. It is sufficient in form under our procedure act of 1860, which requires only a substantial conformity with the act prohibiting the offense and prescribing its punishment.

The title to the act fairly invites an examination of the contents of the bill by all who employ men, women or children in the establishments, industries, works or offices mentioned, and everything which the nature of the subject of a title reasonably suggests as necessary or appropriate for the accomplishment of the expressed purpose is sufficiently indicated by the title: Com. v. Jones, 4 Pa. Superior Ct., 362. To regulate the employment and provide for the health and safety of men, women and children in industrial establishments, necessarily implies that rules and methods of government, permissive, mandatory and prohibitive are within the contemplation of the Legislature, and an enforced submission to the regulating agencies is implied through the imposition of penalties.

There has been a general disposition to construe the constitutional provision liberally, rather than to embarrass legislation by a construction the strictness of which is necessary to the accomplishment of the beneficial purposes for which it has been adopted: Cooley's Conts. Lim. 175. The title need not be a complete index to the bill. (Mauch Chunk v. Magee, 81 Pa. 433), if it fairly gives notice of the subject of the act so as reasonably to lead into an inquiry into the body of the bill, it is all that is necessary. Allegheny County Home's Case, 77 Pa. 77.

The appellants contend that the act is in violation of the State constitution, article 1, section 1, in that it is an unjust interference with an adult female's right of acquiring and possessing property, and of pursuing her own happiness; and in violation of article 3, section 7, in that it is a special law regulating labor.

It is a matter of history in our State that this act of Assembly is the result of extended legislative examination into the management of our varied industrial institutions, which has been conducted by legislative committees, and through our factory and mine inspection bureaus. It is one of a system which has developed in proportion to the growth and prosperity of the State, and when we consider that nearly a million of laborers, men, women and minors, are employed in the industries mentioned in the title of this act, it is apparent that legislation to regulate their employment and provide for their health and safety is an imperative necessity.

By section 2 of the act of April 21, 1849, P. L. 672, labor performed during a period of ten hours on any secular day in all cotton, woolen, silk, paper, bagging and flax factories, shall be considered a legal day's labor, and by a supplement to that act of May 7, 1855, P. L. 472, no male or female operators under the age of twenty-one years can be employed under any contract in these manufactories for a longer period than sixty hours in any one week—or more than an average of ten hours a day during the same period. A progressive step was taken by the act of June 3, 1893, P. L. 276, by which a new department of the State government was created, namely that of Factory Inspector. By this act all employes of women or children or either, in any factory, manufactory, mercantile establishment, renovating works, or laundry, are required to post and keep posted a notice stating the number of hours per day for each day of the week required of such persons, and the inspector was given visitorial powers over factories, workshops and other establishments employing women and children and was directed to make report of the number of hands employed in each with the maximum number of hours of work performed each week. With the light given by the results of the previous legislation on this important subject the act under consideration was enacted.

By article 16, section 3, our State Constitution declares that "the exercise of the police power of the State shall never be abridged." This inherent power of government is vested in the Legislature to make such laws as they shall judge to be for the good of the Commonwealth, and the exercise of it has been left to the individual states to determine primarily what measures are appropriate or needful for the protection of the public morals, the public health, or the public safety, subject to the power of the courts to adjudge whether any particular law is an invasion of the rights of the Constitution: Mugler vs. Kansas City, 123 U. S. 205, Book 31, L. C. P. Co.

The police power of the State is difficult of definition, but it has been held by the courts to be the right to prescribe regulations for the good order, peace, health, protection, comfort, convenience and morals of the community which does not encroach on a like power vested in Congress or State Legislatures by the Federal Constitution, or does not violate the provision of the organic law; and it has been expressly held that the fourteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution was not designed to interfere with the exercise of that power by the State: Powell vs. Penna., 127 U. S. 678: Powell vs. Com., 114 Pa. 205. Its essential quality as a governmental agency is that it imposes upon persons and property burdens designed to promote the safety and welfare of the public at large. The principle that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, was embodied in substance in the constitutions of nearly all, if not all, of the states at the time of the adoption of the fourteenth amendment, and it has never been regarded as incompatible with the principle, equally vital because equally essential to the peace and safety of society, that all property in this country is held under the implied obligation that the owner's use of it shall not be injurious to the community: Boston Beer Co. vs. Massachusetts, 97 U. S. 32.

A prohibition upon unhealthy practices, whether inherently so, or such as may become so by reason of prolonged and exacting physical exertion which is likely to result in enfeebled or diseased bodies, and thereby directly or consequently affecting the health, safety or morals of the community, cannot in any just sense be deemed a taking or an appropriation of property.

The length of time a laborer shall be subjected to the exhaustive exertion of physical labor is as clearly within legislative control as is the governmental inspection of boilers, machinery, etc., to avoid accidents, or of the sanitary conditions of factories and the like to preserve the health of laborers.

The power to legislate on this subject is inherent in all free governments, and is limited only by the Constitution. It must be asserted within reasonable limits. And when we consider that the federal government has fixed eight hours as a day's work for all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by or on behalf of it (Reb. Stat. sec. 3738), and that our own State has fixed the same number of hours as a day's labor in all of our penal institutions (Act of May 20, 1891, P. L. 100), and for all mechanics, workmen and laborers in the employ of the State, or any municipal corporation therein (Act of July 26, 1897, P. L. 418), and that electric railway companies are prohibited from permitting or suffering any of their employes to work more than twelve hours in one day (Act of March 24, 1887, P. L. 13), and that in all cotton, woolen, silk, paper bagging and flax factories, ten hours of any secular day shall be considered a legal day's labor (acts of 1849 and 1855 above mentioned), it cannot be held to be unreasonable to fix the time of labor for adult females at twelve hours a day or not more than sixty hours a week in the establishments named in this act.

If such legislation savors of paternalism, it is in its least objectionable form, in that it cares for those who from their own necessities, ambition, or the cupidity of their employers, may be prompted or required to jeopardize their health in unreasonable and dangerous employment, which in the legislative judgment, founded upon statistical experience injuriously affects their health, and hence the interests of the State itself. It is of the same character of legislation which prohibits the employment of females in or about coal mines, and of minors in trades, etc., which labor arrests or impairs the natural development of mind and body. The State at large is more interested than either employer or employe in preserving that natural physical condition which assures to the individual the most of health and happiness and is least likely to transmit physical, mental or moral effects to succeeding generations. The Legislature has adjudged that the health of adult females is imperiled by being employed at labor in establishments named for a longed time than stated in the act. The adult females, or even the employer, may think otherwise, but self interests from a financial standpoint is often an unsafe guide. "Though reasonable doubts may exist as to the power of the Legislature to pass a law, or as to whether the law is calculated or adapted to promote the health, safety or comfort of the people, or to secure good order, or promote the general welfare, we must resolve them in favor of that department of government." State vs. Holden, 37 L. R. A. 108. "The Legislature has recognized the fact which the experience of legislators in many states has corroborated, that the proprietors of these establishments and their operatives do not stand upon an equality, and that their interests are to a certain extent conflicting." Holden vs. Hardy, 169 Pa. U. S. 366; Book 42, L. ed. 780.

The whole argument in this case is based on the injury done to the adult females whose right to labor as long as they please is alleged to be violated. The remarks of the court in Holden vs. Hardy, 14 Utah 71, are applicable here. "The argument would certainly come with better grace and greater cogency from the latter class. But the fact that both parties are of full age and competent to contract does not necessarily deprive the state of the power to interfere, when the parties do not stand upon an equality, or when the public health demands that one party to the contract shall be protected against himself. The state still retains an interest in his welfare, however reckless he may be. The whole is no greater than the sum of all the parts, and when the individual health, safety and welfare are sacrificed, the state must suffer."

This declaration was adopted by the United States Supreme Court in Holden vs. Hardy, 169 U. S. 366, 42 L. ed. 780, in validating a state statute which limited the employment of men in underground mines, smelting works, etc., to eight hours a day.

The object of such legislation is the good of the public as well as of the individual. The fact that the individual is willing to waive protection cannot avail. The public good is entitled to protection and consideration; and if, in order to effectuate that object, there must be enforced protection to the individual, such individual must submit to such enforced protection for the public good. The statute was enacted as a remedy for such evil. Short vs. Mining Co., 45 L. R. A. 603. In the exercise of its police power the State may enact laws in the interest of public morals, and to protect the lives, health and safety of persons following specified callings and may thus indirectly interfere with the freedom of contract. Lawler vs. Steele, 152 U. S. 133; Com. vs. Brown, 8 Pa., Superior Ct. 351. It is undisputed that some employments may be admissible for males and yet improper for females, and regulations recognizing and forbidding women to engage in such would be open to no reasonable objection. The same is true of young children whose employment in mines and manufactories is commonly and ought always to be regulated. In addition to the power to punish misdemeanor and felonies, the State has also the authority to make extensive and varied regulations as to the time, mode and circumstances in and under which parties shall assert, enjoy or exercise these rights without coming in conflict with any of those constitutional principles which are established for the protection of private rights or private property. Cooley's Const. Lim. 745, 6th ed. It is the prerogative of the Legislature to prescribe regulations founded on nature, reason and experience in determining the kind of labor and the length of time it shall be permitted by either men, women or minors. Sex imposes limitations to excessive or long continued physical labor, as certainly as does minority, and the arrested development of children is no more dangerous to the State than debilitating so large a class of our citizens as adult females by undue and unreasonable physical labor. In overruling the demurer the court below pertinently said: Surely an act which prevents the mothers of our race from being tempted to endanger their life and health by exhaustive employment can be condemned by none save those who expect to profit by it." The complaint of violated constitutional rights, it will be observed, does not come from those who are employed, but from those who employ them. The proper office of statutes is to remedy the defects and modify the operation of common law rules in order to meet changed conditions in society and increased volume and improved methods in business. Com. vs. Vrooman, 164 Pa. 316.

In view of our many mining and manufacturing industries, the solicitous care of government over the health and safety of the laborers is an important branch of legislative duties. It is not a denial of the right to contract. Labor in the establishment mentioned in the act is permitted, but in the legislative judgment, it is not good for the State at large, as it now is, and as it is intended to continue, that adult females should labor a greater number of hours than mentioned in the act. If employes, without regard to sex, are required or permitted to perform labor in fixed places where but few of the muscles of the body are used, where the temperature is abnormal, where chemicals are employed and the air is impoverished by, or laden with, noxious gases and impalpable particles, the physical tension and nervous strain consequent upon such employment for an unreasonable time must of necessity produce an appreciable and dangerous effect on the health of the employe so exposed. Adult females are a class as distinct as minors, separated by natural conditions from all other laborers, and are so constituted as to be unable to endure physical exertion and exposure to the extent and degree that is not harmful to adult males; and employments which under favorable conditions are not injurious are rightly limited as to time by this statute, so as not to become harmful by prolonged engagements.

The conflict of decisions on the question of the power to limit contracts between master and servants is marked, and it is far from settled. In the interest of public policy in this State the trend of the decisions in Com. vs. Brown, 8 Pa. Superior Ct. 339, Com. vs. Hamilton Mfg. Co. 120 Mass. 383; 163 Mass. 339, and Holden vs. Hardy, 169 U. S. 266, 42 L. ed. 78, is more likely to furnish better results, and secure greater health to the Commonwealth, rather than the class of cases of which Ritchie vs. The People, 155 Ill. 98, L. R. A. 79, is most frequently cited.

Class legislation discriminating against some and favoring others, is prohibited, but legislation which, in carrying out a public purpose, is limited in its application, if within the sphere of its operation, and if it affects all persons similarly situated is not within the fourteenth amendment. Barlier vs. Connelly, 113 U. S. 27, 28, L. ed. 923; Minneapolis & St. Paul Ry. vs. Beckwith, 129 U. S. 29, U. S. 32 L. ed., 585.

The act cannot be said to be a local or special law "regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing," in violation of article 3, section 7, when it applies to all adult females alike throughout the State who are employed in the establishments mentioned in the act. It relates to and distinctly defines the class of persons affected by it. Wheeler vs. Phila., 77 Pa. 338; Durkin vs. Kingston Coal Co., 171 Pa. 192; Com. vs. Jones, Pa. Superior Ct. 362.

The assignments of error are overruled and the judgment in the court below is affirmed.

FACTORY LAW OF 1901.

AN ACT

To regulate the employment and provide for the health and safety of men, women and children in manufacturing establishments, mercantile industries, laundries, renovating works or printing offices; and to provide for the safety of men, women and children in hotels, school buildings, seminaries, colleges, academies, hospitals, storehouses, public halls and places of amusement, by requiring proper fire-escapes; and to provide for the appointment of inspectors, office clerks, and others to enforce the same.

Minors and adult women.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That no minor male or female, or adult women, shall be employed at labor or detained in any manufacturing establishment, mercantile industry, workshop, renovating works or printing office, for a longer period than twelve hours in any day, nor for a longer period than sixty hours in any week.

Children under 13 years.

Section 2. No child under thirteen years of age shall be employed in any factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office, within this State.

Between the age of 13 and 16.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office to hire or employ any child between the age of thirteen and sixteen years, without there is first provided and placed on file an affidavit made by the parent or guardian stating the age, date and place of birth of said child. If said child have no parent or guardian, then such affidavit shall be made by the child, which affidavit shall be kept on file by the employer, and shall be returned to the child when employment ceases.

Affidavit.

Examination.

Section 4. All persons authorized to administer oaths must examine all children as to their ability to read and write the English language. After a careful examination, if a child is found unable to read and write the English language, or has not attended school as required by law, or is under thirteen years of age, it will be unlawful to issue a certificate; and in no case shall the officer who executes certificates charge more than twenty-five cents for administering the oath and issuing the certificate.

Certificate.

Section 5. Every person, firm or corporation, employing men, women or children, or either, in any factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office, shall post and keep posted, in a conspicuous place in every room where such help is employed, a printed notice, stating the number of hours per day for each day of the week required of such persons; and, in every room where children under sixteen years of age are employed, a list of their names with their age.

Notice of hours of labor required.

Lits of children.

Section 6. Every person, firm, association, individual, partnership or corporation, employing girls or adult women in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office in this State, shall provide suitable seats for the use of the girls and women so employed, and shall permit the use of such by them when they are not necessarily engaged in the active duties for which they are employed.

Seats for employes.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the owner, agent or lessee of any such factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, school building, hospital, laundry, workshop, renovating works or printing office, where hoisting shafts or well holes are used, to cause the same to be properly and substantially enclosed or secured, if in the opinion of the inspector it is necessary, to protect the life or limbs of those employed in such establishments. It shall be the duty of the owner, agent or lessee to provide, or cause to be provided, such proper trap or automatic gates so fastened in or at all elevator-ways, so as to form a substantial surface when closed and so constructed as to open and close by action of the elevator in its passage, either ascending or descending.

Shafts and well holes.

Automatic traps or gates.

Section 8. It shall also be the duty of the owner of such factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works or printing office, or his agent, superintendent, or other person in charge of the same, to furnish and supply, or cause to be furnished or supplied, in the discretion of the inspector, where dangerous machinery is in use, automatic shifters or other mechanical contrivances for the purpose of throwing on or off belts or pulleys. All gearing and belting shall be provided with proper safeguards. And no minor under sixteen years of age shall be allowed to clean machinery while in motion. And no minor under fourteen years of age, shall operate or otherwise have the care or custody of an elevator.

Automatic shifters.

Section 9. It shall be the duty of the owner or superintendent of all places subject to the factory laws, to report, in writing, to the Factory Inspector all accidents or serious injury done to any person in their employ, within twenty-four hours after the accident occurs, stating as fully as possible the cause of such injury; and in all fatal and serious accidents, the Factory Inspector or his deputy may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and do whatever may be necessary in order to make a thorough and complete investigation of the accident: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not be construed as interfering with the duties of coroners, under existing laws.

Reports.

Subpoenas.

Proviso.

Section 10. A suitable and proper wash and dressing-room and water-closets shal be provided for males and females, where employed in factories and department stores; and the water-closets, wash and dressing rooms used by females shall not adjoin those used by males, but shall be built entirely away from them, and shall be properly screened and ventilated, and at all time kept in a clean condition.

Dressing rooms and water closets.

Section 11. Not less than forty-five minutes shall be allowed for the noonday meal, in any manufacturing establishment in this State. The Factory Inspector, his assistant or any of his deputies, shall have power to issue permits in special cases, allowing a shorter meal time at noon, and such permit must be conspicuously posted in the main entrance of the establishment; and such permit may be revoked at any time the Inspector deems necessary, and shall only be given where good cause be shown.

Time for noonday meal.

Special permit.

Section 12. That if the Factory Inspector or any of his deputies finds that the heating, lighting, ventilation, or sanitary arrangement of any factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office is such as to be injurious to the health of persons employed therein, or as to be dangerous to employes and not sufficiently guarded or that the vats, pans or structures filled with molten metal or hot liquid are not surrounded with proper safeguards for preventing accident or injury to those employed at or near them; or if the means of exit in case of panic or sudden alarm of any kind are not sufficient, or in accordance with all the requirements of law, he shall notify the proprietor of such factory, manufacturing or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovating works, or printing office to make the alterations or additions necessary within such time as said alterations can be made with proper diligence upon the part of such proprietors.

Notice to be given.

Section 13. The Factory Inspector his several deputies be and are hereby charged with the duty, and clothed with the duty and clothed with the power, of inspecting all hotels, school buildings, seminaries, colleges, academies, manufacturing establishments, mercantile industries, laundries, renovating works, printing offices, hospitals, storehouses, public halls, and places of amusement and workshops, all of which are required by law to provide and maintain fire-escapes and appliances for the extinguishment of fire; and to compel the owners of all such buildings, who have not complied with the requirements of the existing laws, to comply therewith and provide and maintain fire-escapes and appliances for the extinguishment of fire. The fire-escape shall be erected and located by order of the Factory Inspector or his deputy, regardless of the exemption granted by any board of county commissioners, fire marshals or other authorities.

Power and duty of Inspector and deputies.

Fire escapes, etc.

Section 14. It shall be the duty of the owner or owners of boilers, used for the generating of steam to be applied to machinery in all industrial institutions subject to factory inspection, to furnish from time to time, as required by the Factory Department, reports, or other evidence from competent authority, as to the condition of the boilers used for the generation of steam, to the Factory Inspector. He or his deputies or other agents shall have the right, from time to time, to enter upon the premises where such boiler or boilers are kept, for the purpose of inspecting the same and determining their safety; and if any such boiler or boilers shall be found to be in a dangerous condition and liable to explode, it shall be the duty of the Factory Inspector or one of his deputies to notify the owner or owners thereof, his or their agent, or engineer in charge, of such dangerous condition; and when so notified by the State Factory Inspector, his deputy or other agents, it shall be the duty of the owner or owners thereof to immediately cease the use of said boiler or boilers until placed in safe condition: Provided, however, That section seven, thirteen and fourteen shall not apply to municipalities in this Commonwealth, where, under the existing law, the boiler inspectors, the building or elevator inspectors, the fire marshal, or other officers are vested with like authority.

Notice of defect.

Proviso.

Section 15. The Factory Inspector, in order to more effectually carry out the provisions of the factory, bake-shop, sweat-shop and fire escape laws, is hereby authorized to appoint twenty-five (25) deputy factory inspectors, five of whom shall be women, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per year; a chief clerk for the department, at a salary of sixteen hundred dollars per year; an assistant clerk and stenographer, at a salary of eleven hundred dollars per year; and a messenger, at a salary of eight hundred dollars per year.

Appointment of deputies.

Section 16. The traveling expenses of said deputies shall be approved by the Inspector and audited by the Auditor General, before payment.

Traveling expenses.

Section 17. Said Factory Inspector shall have power to divide the State into districts, and to assign one of said deputies to each district, and may transfer any of the deputies to other districts in case the best interests of the State require it. The Inspector shall have the power of removing any of the deputy inspectors at any time.

Removals.

Section 18. An office shall be furnished in the Capitol which shall be set apart for the use of the Factory Inspector. The Factory Inspector and his deputies shall have the same power to administer oaths or affirmations as is now given to notaries public in cases where persons desire to verify documents connected with the proper enforcement of this act.

Inspector and deputies may administer oaths

Information to be given.

Section 20. It shall be the duty of the owner, superintendent, assistant, or person in charge of all places subject to factory inspection, to furnish, from time to time, to the Factory Inspector or his deputy the necessary information, and answer all questions, pertaining to the factory inspection laws and necessary to the making up of the inspector's report.

Section 21. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act, or who suffers any child or female to be employed in violation of its provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars. In all such cases the hearing shall be conducted by the alderman or justice of the peace before whom information is lodged, and, after full hearing of parties in interest, the alderman or justice of the peace shall impose the fine herein provided, which shall be final unless an appeal be taken to the court of quarter sessions within twenty days from the date of the imposition of the fine, as herein provided.

for the manufacture of coats, vests, trousers, knee-pants, overalls, skirts, dresses, cloaks, hats, caps, suspenders, jerseys, blouses, waists, waistbands, underwear, neckwear, furs, fur trimmings, fur garments, shirts, hosiery, purses, feathers, artificial flowers, cigarettes or cigars, and no person, firm or corporation shall hire or employ any person to work in any room, apartment, or in any building or parts of building, at making in whole or in part of the articles mentioned in this section, without first obtaining a written permit from the Factory Inspector, or one of his deputies, stating the maximum number of persons allowed to be employed therein, and that the building or part of building intended to be used for such work or business is thoroughly clean, sanitary and fit for occupancy for such work or business. Such permit shall not be granted until an inspection of such premises is made by the Factory Inspector or one of his deputies. Said permit may be revoked by the Factory Inspector at any time the health of the community or those so employed may require it. It shall be framed and posted in a conspicuous place in the room, or in one of the rooms to which it relates. Every person, firm, company or corporation contracting for the manufacture of any of the articles mentioned in this section, or giving out the incomplete material from which they or any of them are to be made, or to be wholly or partially finished shall, before contracting for the manufacture of any of said articles, or giving out said material from which they or any of them are to be made, require the production by such contractor, person or persons of said permit from the Factory Inspector as required in this section and shall keep a written register of the names and addresses of all persons to whom such work is given to be made, or with whom they may have contracted to do the same. Such register shall be produced for inspection and a copy thereof shall be furnished on demand made by the Factory Inspector or one of his deputies: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent the employment of a seamstress by any family for manufacturing articles for such family use.

Rooms in tenement houses shall not be used for manufacturing articles mentioned.

Nor shall manufacturers employ persons to work therein.

Unless permit be obtained from factory inspector.

Number and location of such escapes.

Description of.

Such escapes to consist of outside, open iron stairway of not more than forty-five degrees slant, with steps not less than six inches in width and twenty-four inches in length. And all of said buildings, capable of accommodating from one hundred to five hundred or more persons as operatives, guests or inmates, shall be provided with two such stairways, and more than two stairways if such be necessary to secure the speedy and safe escape of said inmates in case the internal stairways are cut off by fire or smoke. And it shall be the duty of the owner or owners in fee or for life, of every such building, and of the trustee or trustees of every estate, association, society, college, seminary, academy, hospital or asylum, owning or using any such building, and of the board of education or board of school directors having charge of any such school building, to provide and cause to be securely affixed outside of every such building such permanent external unenclosed fire escape. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit any person whose duty it is under this act to erect fire escapes from selecting and erecting any other and different device, design or instrument, being a permanent, safe, external means of escape, subject to the inspection and approval of the constituted authorities for that purpose.

Certain buildings to have two or more stairways.

Duty of owners, trustees, etc., to provide escapes, etc.

Different devices may be used, if approved, etc.

Approved—The 12th day of July, A. D. 1897.

THIRD INSPECTION DISTRICT.

MARY S. GLENN, Inspector.

Philadelphia, Pa.,
November 1, 1901.

Mr. James Campbell,
Chief Factory Inspector,
Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: I have the honor herewith to present my report for the year ending October 31st, 1901. The records show that the number of persons employed in the Third district, which is largely mercantile, is greater this year, thereby endorsing the prosperity of the country.

Thanking you for uniform courtesy, I am

Very truly yours,
MARY S. GLENN.

SEVENTEENTH INSPECTION DISTRICT.

M. N. BAKER, Inspector.

Corry, Pa.,
November 1st, 1901.

Mr. James Campbell,
Chief Factory Inspector,
Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: In closing the work in the 17th district for 1901, nothing can be added to former suggestions. The work has increased to such proportions that it is much more difficult than formerly.

Not only have mammoth mills been erected, but in every locality new mills have sprung into existence and are working the full limit.

Factory legislation is well received and gladly observed.

Thanking you for kindness and assistance, I am

Very truly,

M. N. BAKER.

EIGHTEENTH INSPECTION DISTRICT.

GEORGE I. RUDOLPH, Inspector.

Allegheny City, Pa.,
November 1st, 1901.

Mr. James Campbell,
Chief Factory Inspector,
Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: I respectfully submit to you the following narrative of my work in the 18th district for the year ending October 31st, 1901. This, the largest manufacturing district in the world, is badly in need of more inspectors.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE I. RUDOLPH.

NINETEENTH INSPECTION DISTRICT.

LUCILLE D. SCHAFER, Inspector.

Pittsburg, Pa.,
November 1st, 1901.

Mr. James Campbell,
Chief Factory Inspector,
Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: I have the honor to forward my 3rd annual report of the work performed by me in the 19th district in Pittsburg.

During the past year there have been a great many improvements made in my district.

Very truly yours,

TWENTIETH INSPECTION DISTRICT.

WILLIAM A. CARNEY, Inspector.

Pittsburg, Pa.,
October 31st, 1901.

Mr. James Campbell,
Chief Factory Inspector,
Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: Enclosed find narrative report for the year ending October 31st, 1901. A long and severe spell of sickness prevented me from inspecting all the places in my district, but, with restored health, I will make a better report the coming year.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM A. CARNEY,
Deputy Inspector, 20th District.

SYNOPSIS OF INSPECTION LAWS.

(Published here for ready reference.)

CONNECTICUT.

No person under the age of 16 years can have the care, custody, operation, or management of any elevator. Child labor.

Factory buildings must be kept clean and sufficiently ventilated. The inspector may order mechanical appliances to carry dust generated by machinery out of workrooms. Suitable water closets must be provided in shops and factories employing five or more persons, and seats in all establishments for female employes. Sanitary inspection.

Belting, shafting, gearing, drums, and other machinery must be guarded when deemed necessary by the inspector. Machinery, excepting steam engines, must not be cleaned while in motion. Elevator and floor openings, generally, must be guarded with safety gates, hatch covers, and other devices, as the inspector shall direct, and elevator cars must be furnished with proper safety attachments. Safeguards.

Every story above the first of every schoolhouse, orphan asylum, insane asylum, reformatory, opera house, hall, boarding house with twelve inmates, and tenement house with five families, must be provided with more than one way of egress, inside or outside, and every such building, and in addition thereto, every factory and workshop employing twenty or more persons above first floor, more than two stories in height, shall be provided with one or more fire-escapes. Protection from fire.

ILLINOIS.

Children under fourteen years of age can not be employed in any factory or workshop, and minors must Limitation of child labor.

produce sworn statements as to age. Office register of minors must be kept by employers, and a record of names and ages of minors posted in rooms where they are employed. Physician's certificate as to the physical ability of any minor to perform certain labor may be demanded by inspectors.

Santiary inspection.

Inspectors have access to every place where articles of clothing are manufactured for sale; with power to condemn and order destroyed garments found infectious or infested with vermin, and to prohibit the employment in any dwelling rooms of any person not a member of the family living therein.

MAINE.

Limitation of child labor.

No child under 12 years of age shall be employed in any manufacturing or mechanical establishment, nor any child under 15 years of age except during vacation of the public schools, unless such child has attended school sixteen weeks of each year preceding its 16th year. To secure employment every child must procure a certificate from the school authorities to the effect that the school laws are complied with, and it shall contain the age and birthplace of such child, and be kept on file for reference by the employer.

Hours of labor.

No female under 18 years of age and no male under 16 years of age shall work more than ten hours per day or sixty hours per week. Male minors over 16 years of age, with consent of parents, may contract to work longer hours, otherwise ten hours is a legal day's work for such minors. The same rule applies to women over 18 years of age, with provision that the limit of over-time for women shall not exceed six hours in any one week or sixty hours in one year. Employers must post in every room where minors and women are employed, a notice in large type regulating the hours of labor for such persons.

Safeguards.

The inspector must enforce a law requiring the peoper swinging of doors in factories and workshops.

Sanitary inspection.

Whatever is discovered by the inspector which endangers the life or health of the employes in factory, workshop, mine, or quarry must be reported to the local board of health, who must investigate.

Payment of wages.

Every firm and corporation, including municipal corporations and excluding railroad corporations, employing more than ten persons, must pay fortnightly all wages earned by employes.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Limitation of child labor.

Children under 13 years of age can not be employed in any factory, workshop, or mercantile establishment. A sworn statement of the age of all minors under 16 years of age must be obtained and kept by employers. Children under 14 years of age applying for employment, must produce a certificate of school attendance of thirty weeks during the year preceding employment. In cities where manual training is conducted, school attendance is required to the age of 15 years. No child under 14 years of age shall clean machinery operated by mechanical power, and the chief of the department of inspection, with the approval of the Governor, may designate what employments are injurious to the health of children under 14 years of age and prevent their employment thereat. No child under 15 years of age shall operate or have charge over any elevator, or any minor under 18 years of age shall operate or have charge over any elevator running over 200 feet per minute. Children under 15 years are prohibited from appearing in any circus or theatrical exhibition.

Hours of labor for women and children.

Minors under 18 years of age, and all women employed in manufacturing establishments, are prohibited from working more than fifty-eight hours in one week, and more than ten hours in one day. No minor under 18 years of age can be employed more than sixty hours in one week. Legal day's work for both sexes employed by the State is nine hours, whether employed by the State directly or by contract for the State. No child under 14 years of age can be employed in any establishment before 6 A. M., or later than 7 P. M., nor any minor or woman in any manufacturing establishment between the hours of 10 P. M. and 6 A. M.

Sanitary inspection.

All factories must be kept clean and well ventilated; and in factories employing five or more persons, and in workshops employing five or more children, young persons, or women, inspectors may make such changes, and compel the application and use of any mechanical means, without incurring unreasonable cost, which in their judgment is necessary to secure proper ventilation. Public buildings and school rooms come under the factory laws providing for sanitation and ventilation. Sweat shops are regulated by license laws requiring cleanliness in and about the tenement house so used, and a tag upon all clothing made under the system, guaranteeing that it is free from vermin and all infectious or contagious matter.

Safeguards.

Belting, shafting, gearing and drums in factories must be securely guarded. Wherever manufacturing machinery is propelled by steam, suitable communication must be provided between each room where such machinery is placed in the engine room, in order to control the motive power in case of accident. Machinery other than steam engines must not be cleaned while running if objected to by an inspector. The openings for hoistways, hatchways, well holes, and elevators in all buildings must be protected in such a manner as inspectors may direct and any elevator deemed dangerous or unsafe by an inspector shall be placarded as such, and its use prohibited until made safe.

Protection from fire and other disaster.

Inspectors may order fire escapes, safe stairways inside or outside of buildings, and the altering of doors and windows suitable for speedy egress in all public buildings, and all factories, workshops, mercantile establishments, hotels, tenements, etc., having at any time more than ten persons, or any floor above the second, and all such floors shall require suitable means for extinguishing fire.

Inspection of steam boilers.

Six special inspectors are appointed to inspect all uninsured steam boilers of a certain capacity and used in connection with stationery engines, or for heating public buildings, and to examine engineers and firemen as to their competency to have charge over such steam plants.

License.

Engineer or firemen operating boiler must have license; license must be renewed at the end of three years. License fee, $1.

Accidents.

Manufacturers and mercantile establishments must report "forthwith" all accidents resulting in the death of an employe, or which prevents his return to work within four days after the occurrence.

Weekly pay law.

The chief inspector can compel all persons and corporations employing twenty-five or more persons to pay employes their wages weekly, excepting when the railroad commissioners shall exempt any railroad corporation from the provisions of this act, if, in their opinion, any of the employes of said corporation wish less frequent payment.

Fines.

The system of grading work now or at any time hereafter used by the manufacturers shall in no way effect the wages of a weaver except for imperfections in his own work, and in on case shall the wages of those engaged in weaving be affected by fines or otherwise, unless the imperfections complained of are first exhibited and pointed out by the person or persons whose wages are to be effected, and no fine shall be imposed upon any person for imperfect weaving, unless the provisions of this act are first complied with, and the amount of the fines agreed upon by both parties.

MICHIGAN.

Limitation of child labor.

Children under 14 years of age can not be employed in any factory or workshop. Sworn statement as to the age of minors under 16 years must be furnished to employers, who must keep office register of such and post a record thereof on the walls of workrooms. Female minors under 21 and male minors under 18 years of age must not be allowed to clean machinery while in motion.

Hours of labor.

Males under 18 years and female under 21 years of age, can not work more than ten hours in one day, unless to make a shorter workday on Saturday, and not more than sixty hours in one week.

Sanitary inspection.

Means must be provided to carry dust from all dust-creating machinery; separate closets must be provided for each sex, and wash and dress rooms for all females, and such closets and dress rooms must be kept in clean condition.

Safeguards.

Elevators, hoisting shafts, or well holes, must be secured and equipped with trap or automatic doors, and all gearing, shafting, and other apparatus kept in safe condition. Hand-rails must be provided on stairways, and stairs screened, and when necessary, stair steps must be provided with rubber covers.

Protection from fire, etc.

Factory buildings of three or more stories must be provided with fire-escapes, easy of access and free from draft of hoistway or stairway. Doors must be properly hung and open outwardly, and not fastened during working hours.

MINNESOTA.

Limitation of child labor.

The law forbids any parent or guardian to let or hire any minor under 21 years of age, nor must any person wilfully permit any child under 14 years to work at any employment injurious to health, dangerous to life and limb, or likely to deprave its morals.

Hours of labor.

Children under 16 years of age must not be permitted, nor must any woman be compelled, to work more than ten hours in one day, or to work earlier than 7 A. M. nor later than 6 P. M. of any one day.

Sanitary inspection.

All work rooms must be well lighted, heated and ventilated and kept in clean condition. Exhaust fans must be adjusted for carrying dust from emery wheels and grindstones. Separate closets for the sexes must be provided, and wash and dress rooms where females are employed, and seats for their use in mercantile establishments. Bakeries, including hotel and restaurant kitchens, must have no connection, within or without the room, with any water closet, earth closet, ash pit or other nuisance, and employe or others are not to be permitted to live or sleep in bakeries.

Safeguards.

The law is specific in authority and includes almost the whole range of machinery employed in industrial operations. It provides that saws, planers, wood-shapers, jointers, sand-papering machines, ironing mangles, set screws, drums, belts, shafting, cables, fly wheels, dynamos, and other electrical apparatus and appliance, vats, pans and such other structures, and all dangerous places in and about factories and other works must be guarded. Loose pulleys must be adjusted where practicable, and shift-belts provided with shifters. All elevators and other floor openings must be fenced or otherwise protected, and all elevators supplied with safety devices.

Protection against fire.

In all factories and other buildings in which people are employed more than one means of egress must be provided. Doors leading therefrom must open outward, and be kept unfastened and unobstructed during working hours. Hand rails on stairways must be provided, and stairs properly screened when used by females. One or more fire escapes shall be placed upon all factory and other such buildings if three or more stories in height. Plan of escape is defined by enactment.

Steam boilers are inspected by a separate State Department, constituted by five inspectors. Inspection of steam boilers.

Accidents to employes requiring the aid of a surgeon or resulting in death must be reported by employer within ten days after occurring. Accidents.

MISSOURI.

No minor shall be required to clean machinery or to work between its traversing parts while it is in motion. Limitation of child labor.

Inspectors have power to prevent overcrowding in all establishments where labor is employed, and can regulate heating, lighting, ventilating and other sanitary arrangements, and may order suitable mechanical means for carrying away dust and other impurities generated by manufacturing. And where females are employed at unclean work, wash and dress rooms must be provided, and stairs used by females must be properly screened, seats must be provided and convenient-located, so that females can use them when not required to be on their feet, and where both sexes are employed separate and distinct water closets must be provided for each sex. Sanitary inspection.

Belting, shafting, gearing, and drums in all establishments must be safely and securely guarded, and all vats, pans, ladles or structures filled with molten metal or hot liquid, or any furnace, must be surrounded with safeguards, and all platforms, passageways, and other arrangements about railroad yards must be made comparatively safe. The openings of hatchways, elevators, and well holes must be protected by trap doors, self-closing hatches or safety catches, or railing three feet high. When guards are not practicable, notice of danger must be posted. Safeguards.

Establishments two or more stories high, in which twenty or more persons are employed above first floor, must be provided with fire escapes, and in addition for every twenty persons employed above the second floor, one rope or other portable fire escape; and each floor must be supplied with means for extinguishing fire. All doors must open outwardly, and must not be locked or bolted during labor hours. In any building or any part thereof supposed to be unsafe, or means of egress insufficient, the inspector may order necessary changes. Protection against fire.

NEW JERSEY.

Accidents.

Any accident resulting in death, or which prevents an employe's return to work within two weeks, must be reported.

Limitation of child labor.

Boys under 12 years of age and girls under 14 years of age are prohibited from working in any manufacturing establishments. Children between the age of 12 and 15 years must produce school certificate of school attendance for twelve weeks during the year immediately preceding date of employment. No minor under the age of 16 years shall be employed at work dangerous to health without certificate from physician, and no minor shall clean machinery in motion or be employed between its traversing parts.

Hours of labor.

The hours of labor for minors of both sexes is limited to fifty-five per week.

Sanitary inspection.

Inspectors have power to regulate heating, lighting, and other sanitary conditions. They can prohibit the overcrowding of factories and workshops, and to produce proper ventilation in factories where dust is created, they can have suitable mechanical means applied, and in all establishments where women are employed suitable and separate closets for the sexes must be provided, with wash and dress rooms for females. Factories where dusty work is performed and wherein women and children are employed shall be whitewashed or painted once in twelve months. Bakeries must be thoroughly ventilated and be provided with proper plumbing connections, and must have no connection within or without the room with any water closet, earth closet, ash pit or other nuisance. Employes must have sleeping quarters separate from bake rooms.

Safeguards.

Belting, shafting, gearing, drums, and other machinery of a dangerous character, and all vats, pans, and other structures containing molten metal or hot liquid must be suitably protected. All floor openings for hatchways, hoistways, well holes, and elevators must be provided with outomatic or trap-doors and otherwise be guarded with a railing three feet high. Stairs is use by females must be screened, and no female must be allowed to clean machinery in operation or to work between its traversing parts.

Explosives or inflammable matter must not be placed or used in such manner as to obstruct egress or to endanger life in case of fire. Upon all buildings for manufacturing purposes two or three stories in height, where thirty or more persons are employed above the first floor, one or more fire-escapes may be ordered by the inspectors, and suitable means for extinguishing fire be provided for each floor. Protection from fires, etc.

Accidents resulting in death must be reported within twenty-four hours after, and those which prevent the return to work of the injured person within two weeks must be reported to an inspector within twenty-four hours after the expiration of said two weeks. Accidents.

NEW YORK.

No child under 14 years of age can be employed in any factory or workshop, and all minors between 14 and 16 years of age are required to produce a health ward certificate as to age, etc., before obtaining employment, and a record of the names, etc., of same is kept in the office. Children between the ages of 14 and 16 years are required to be able to read and write simple sentences in the English language, otherwise they can be employed only during vacation times of the public schools. No minor under 15 years of age shall have charge over or operate an elevator, and no minor under 18 years shall have charge over or operate an elevator running at a speed of more than 200 feet per minute, nor shall he be allowed to clean machinery while in motion, and any person is forbidden to remove guards from machinery undess for immediate repairs. Limitation of child labor.

No minor under 18 years nor woman under 21 years of age is allowed to work more than ten hours in any one day, unless for the purpose of making a shorter work day on Saturday, and minors shall not work more than sixty hours in one week, and no minor under 18 years of age and no woman under 21 years of age can commence working any day before 6 A. M., nor be employed after 9 P. M. Hours of labor.

In all factories and workshops between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M., 250 cubic feet of air space is required for each employe, and 400 cubic feet from 6 P. M. to 6 A. M., but inspectors may grant less air space where rooms are lighted at night time by electricity. All work rooms are required to be kept in Sanitary inspection.

clean condition, and exhaust fans and other means of ventilation may be required in work rooms in order to carry away dust or other impurities. In all establishments separate closets must be provided for the sexes —with suitable wash and dress rooms for females. Rooms, ceilings, and walls must be whitewashed or painted by the direction of the inspectors. Sweatshops are controlled by license laws requiring cleanliness and thorough disinfection of premises, and restricting the work done in each tenement workshop to the members of the family dwelling therein. A tag is to be placed upon all sweater-made clothing, etc., manufactured in violation of the provision of the act, or made under unclean or unhealthy conditions. The sanitary regulation of bakeries is provided for by special enactment. Six (6) inspectors are appointed to carry out requirements of the law.

Safeguards.

Elevator openings, hoisting shafts, and well holes must be enclosed with railing or casing, and be provided with properly adjusted trap or automatic doors and gates. Cables, gearing, shafting and other machinery or apparatus must be guarded and kept in safe condition. Hand-rails must be provided on all stairways, and stairs screened where females are employed, and when deemed necessary, stairs must be covered with rubber covers.

Protection from fire and other disaster.

Buildings of three or more stories with employes on or above the third story, must be provided with suitable fire escapes, easy of access, and free from draft, from any hoistway, stairs or other floor openings. Doors must open outwardly and be kept unfastened during work hours.

Accidents.

Every case of accident or injury to any employe must be reported with full details within forty-eight hours after its occurrence.

Weekly pay law.

Every corporation, excepting steam surface railway corporations, is required to make weekly payment of wages to employes.

Mines.

Inspection of mines is placed under the factory inspection department in New York.

OHIO.

Limitation of child labor.

The age at which children may be employed in manufacturing establishments is 14 years, with the provisions that children more than 12 years of age may be employed at non-dangerous employment during the time they are not required by law to attend school. The school law requires that all children under 14 years of age and over 8 years must attend school during the school term. This law is not enforced by factory inspectors, but to truant officers, one or more, in all school districts. Office record must be kept by employers of all minors under 18 years of age, giving name, date and place of birth, with residence of parents or guardians. No minor under 16 years of age shall work at any employment whereby his life or limb is endangered, or his health is likely to be impaired, or his morals may be depraved.

Hours of labor for minors.

No minor under the age of 18 years shall be employed in any manufacturing establishment more than ten hours in one day, nor more than sixty hours in one week. Notices containing the law must be posted by manufacturers in a conspicuous place in every room, where minors are employed, the chief inspector of factories to furnish such notices.

Sanitary inspection.

Heating, lighting, ventilation, and other sanitary requirements in factories, workshops, and mercantile establishments, are under the inspector's supervision, and to secure such he may cut through walls, floors, roofs and ceilings, or make changes in sewerages and plumbing, and require proper closet arrangements, and may demand separate closets for sexes, with toilet and dressing rooms for females on the floors on which they work, and seats for females to be used by them when not actively engaged. Special bakeshop and sweatshop laws.

Safeguards.

Inspectors must order guards for belting, shafting, gearing, elevators, and other machinery; also for vats, pans, and other structures, filled with molten metal or hot liquid; also efficient safety gates for elevator openings, guarding of hatchways, and hoisting apparatus in floors or outside of buildings; the repair of all elevators and all gearing, and of defective walls, roofs, ceilings, stairways, and doors, and all other improvements necessary to secure the safety of employes. Blowers may be required where dust-creating machinery is used.

Protection from fires, etc.

Inspectors have power to examine all buildings as to their safety, and to order all necessary alterations to obtain the same; also to provide for stairways and fire escapes and other efficient means of egress, and hand-rails on all stairways, and may require in all halls and other buildings for public assemblage means of extinguishing fire on all floors above the first, and that all doors in such buildings shall open outward.

Accidents.

Employers must report all accidents upon blanks furnished by inspectors; those resulting in death within seven days after, and those in bodily injury, necessitating six days' consecutive loss of time within thirty days after.

Fines.

Stated wages, beforehand agreed upon between employer and employe, must be paid to all minors, and the retention of such by fines or upon any other pretext is absolutely prohibited. No change of wages must occur without a written notice being given to each minor affected twenty-four hours before such change shall take place.

ONTARIO.

Limitation of child labor.

No child under 14 years of age can be employed in any factory, except in canning and dessicating fruit and vegetables.

Hours of labor.

No child under 14 years, and no girl or woman can be employed for more than ten hours in one day, or sixty hours in one week, except when employed in factories for canning and dessicating fruit and vegetables. In these, females under 18 years may be employed for as many as thirty-six nights in twelve months until 9 P. M.; and women over 18 years may be required to labor "until the work is finished" twenty nights in twelve months.

Sanitary inspection.

Every factory must be kept clean and not overcrowded, and must be ventilated so as to render harmless, as far as practicable, all unwholesome effluvia, and to take away dust and other injurious impurities generated by manufacturing machinery. Separate closets, must be provided for the sexes, each set to have separate approaches, and to be kept clean and well ventilated at all times. Special act governing sanitation, etc., in bakeshops.

Safeguards.

Belting, shafting, gearing, fly-wheels, drums, and moving parts of machinery, vats, pans, caldrons, reservoirs, wheel races, flumes, water channels, doors, openings in floors or walls, bridges, and all dangerous structures must be, as far as practicable, securely guarded. Hoistways, hatchways, elevators, and well holes, must be protected by such automatic appliances as the inspector may desire, and all elevator cabs, and cars, must be provided, to the satisfaction of the inspector, with suitable safety attachments. No machinery, other than steam engines, must be cleaned while in motion, if inspector so orders, and no woman must be allowed to clean mill gearing while in motion nor to work between the traversing parts of machinery.

Protection from fire, etc.

Factories, three or more stories high, must be provided with fire escapes, unless supplied with sufficient tower stairways protected with iron doors. All inside and outside doors must open outwardly, and all doors entering stairway towers, or leading to fire escapes, must be kept unlocked and unbolted during working hours. In every factory there must be provided such means for extinguishing fire as the inspector may direct.

Accidents.

Accidents resulting in bodily injury to an employe must be reported by the employer within six days after, and if accident shall prove fatal, within twenty-four hours from time of its occurrence.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Limitation of child labor.

Children under 13 years of age can not be employed in any manufacturing or mercantile establishment. Sworn statement is required of child's age from parents or guardians, and wall record in each room where children are employed, and office register must be kept of all minors under 16 years of age. No boy under 14 years is allowed to run an elevator, and no minor under 16 years to clean machinery while in motion.

Hours of labor.

Minors must not be employed in any one day longer than twelve hours nor in any week more than sixty hours.

Sanitary inspection.

Heating, lighting, ventilation, and other sanitary conditions come under the regulation of inspectors. Suitable and separate water-closets and wash and dress rooms must be provided for females; they must not adjoin closets for males, and shall be kept clean, properly screened and ventilated. Special enactment regulates the sweat-shop system. A copy of the law will be found on another page of the proceedings.

Safeguards.

All floor openings for elevators must be properly guarded and provided with automatic traps or doors. Belting, shafting, gearing, drums, and other dangerous machinery must be sufficiently guarded, and all vats, pans, and structures containing molten metal or hot liquid must be surrounded with proper safeguards. Shifting belts and pulleys must be provided with shifters.

Protection from fires, etc.

Inspectors can order all buildings more than two stories high provided with one or more fire-escapes, after a certain model designated by statute, and with life ropes and chains as any such building may require

Accidents.

All accidents causing death or serious injury to any person must be reported within twenty-four hours after their occurrence.

Semi-monthly pay law.

The statute provides that wages to all employes shall be paid twice each month—upon demand of employes—and failure to comply herwith may, upon complaint of any citizen, be prosecuted by the factory inspector.

QUEBEC.

Limitation of child labor.

No boy under 12 years, and no girl under 14 years of age can be employed in any factory, workshop, workyard, or mill of any kind. In establishments classified as "dangerous, unwholesome, or inconvenient," the age of employe shall not be under 16 years for boys, and 18 years for girls. Age certificate may be required of parent or guardian. Children are discharged if pronounced physically unfit for work by sanitary or other physician. Employer must keep register containing names and ages of boys, girls and women employed, the period of each day and week they are employed, and the hour at which they begin and finish work.

Hours of labor for women and children.

No boy under 18 years of age, and no girl or woman shall be employed more than ten hours in any one day and sixty hours in any one week. The day shall not commence before six o'clock in the morning, nor end after nine o'clock at night. In certain exigencies the inspector may extend the working day to twelve hours for a period not exceeding six weeks.

Sanitary inspection.

Establishments must be kept clean, well lighted, well ventilated; must be provided with apparatus for expelling dust and gases, and employers must furnish inspector with certificate from health officers that establishment fulfills sanitary conditions imposed by factory act and regulations of Board of Health of Province.

Safeguards.

Platforms and elevated passageways must be provided with guards, belting, cables, and shafts must be closed in to a height of six feet; pits, cells, wells, traps and vats must be covered or fenced in; warning placards must be posted near tanks of corrosive or burning liquids. Hoist, elevator, and lift shafts must be closed in with self-closing doors, and shall be examined every six months. Machinery of all kinds must be guarded, and may not be oiled, cleaned, or repaired while in motion.

Protection from fires, etc.

Owner, tenant, and occupant of property on which establishment is built are jointly and severally responsible for construction and repair of fire escapes. Doors of egress must open outward, must be left free during working hours, must close by means of weights or spring only. In buildings three stories or more high inspectors may require additional exits and outside iron fire escape stairs, these exits to consist of doors or windows opening out upon balcony or gallery. Receptacles for oil and petroleum must be kept in special closed rooms. Gas works must be separated from workshop and in charge of men over 18 years of age. Places in which explosive or inflammable gases are produced or kept, must be lighted only from the outside and visited only with safety lamps.

Boilers and motors.

In new establishments steam boilers and motors must, if possible, be placed outside of main building. In older establishments they may be closed in on side where work is done, and accessible only to the workmen in charge. Every boiler must be provided with not less than two safety valves, a steam guage and two independent water gauges.

Accidents.

Employer must send to inspector a written notice of any accident whereby a workman has been killed or so seriously injured as to prevent his continuing at work. The notice must be sent within forty-eight hours of time of accident, and must state where the person injured or killed has place of residence, or the place to which he has been removed. The inspectors may be present at coroner's inquests and at inquiries by fire marshals. The inspectors may hold such inquiries as they deem proper, may examine any person employed, summon witnesses and administer the oath to them.

Public buildings.

Public buildings, as well as industrial establishments, are inspected under these laws.

RHODE ISLAND.

Limitation of child labor.

No child under 12 years of age can be employed in any manufacturing or mercantile establishment. Employers must keep office register of all minors under 16 years of age. Minors under 16 are not allowed to clean machinery while in motion.

Hours of labor.

Hours of labor for women and minors are limited by law to sixty hours per week, but this is not included in factory act.

Sanitary inspection.

Separate closets for sexes are required, and wash and dressing rooms for females; to be located to meet the demands of health and propriety.

Safeguards.

Belting, shafting, gearing, drums, and other dangerous machinery, and all vats, pans, and other structures filed with molten metal or hot liquid, must be properly and securely guarded, and all hoisting shafts, and well holes be properly secured, and elevators be provided with traps, automatic doors or railings.

Protection from fire.

Inspectors are empowered to provide and direct improvements in means of egress in case of fire.

Accidents.

Fatal accidents must be reported within forty-eight hours, and all serious accidents within three weeks from time of occurrence.*

*Note.—The factory act applies to all establishments where five or more women or minors are employed.
